

JUNE EVENTS 2016

International Scientific Seminar

Sustainable Intensification of Planted Forests: How Far Can We Go?

Monday 13th June 2016

L'auditorium de la Cité de l'Océan. Biarritz, France

Photo: Fotolia P666

Registration

Please register online here by 25th May:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/efiatlantic-june-events-2016-tickets-23802190994?aff=affiliate1>

Fees: 50€

Simultaneous interpretation

English-French-Spanish

JUNE EVENTS 2016

2

JUNE EVENTS 2016

Programme (last updated on 6 June 2016)

9:30-10:00	Coffee and welcome: Marc Palahí (EFI), Christian Pinaudeau (IEFC) and Jean-Michel Carnus (IUFRO).
10:00-11:00	Session 1: Global context: expansion vs intensification Planted forest production. Tim Payn, SCION, New Zealand. The Role of planted forests in the global economy. Daowei Zhang, Auburn University, USA.
11:00-13:00	Session 2: Management options for intensifying planted forest production A European perspective. Bill Mason, FR, UK. A North American perspective. Thomas Fox, Virginia Tech, USA. An African perspective. Josephine Yameogo, CNRST, Burkina Faso. Genetic potential for intensification in planted forests. Heidi Dungey, SCION, New Zealand.
13:00-14:00 Lunch
14:00-17:30	Session 3: Intensification opportunities and threats i. Risks and intensification in planted forests Sustainability issues related to forest soils. Gregory Van der Heijden, INRA. Biodiversity and biotic risks. Hervé Jactel, INRA, France. Abiotic risks. Barry Gardiner, EFIATLANTIC, France.
15:30-16:00 Refreshment break
	ii. Opportunities for intensification in planted forests Climate change and intensification. Peter Freer-Smith, FR, UK. Intensification in the context of bio-economy and circular economy – status and foresight. Jean François Dhôte, INRA, France. Socio-economic role of planted forests: a Chinese perspective. Wu Shuirong, CAF, China.
17:30-18:30	Closing ceremony with regional representatives: Stéphane Vieban (Plantons pour Avenir), Beatrice Gendreau (Regional Council of Aquitaine (ALPC)), Peli Manterola Arteta (Basque Government) and Nathalie Barbe (French Ministry of Agriculture, Agri-Food and Forest)
20:00	Dinner at Le Café de la Grande Plage, 1 avenue Édouard VII, 64200 Biarritz